

Principal considers possible stand-down or suspension

At all times, the principles of natural justice apply – act fairly and reasonably in the circumstances.

Stand-downs: Action by principal following decision to stand-down

Action by board following decision to suspend

